

RYAN SWEEDER

LBC Faculty

STEM Scholars' Fund

This award is intended to encourage students who have demonstrated the capacity to achieve educational and professional goals, the motivation to achieve these goals and the initiative to seek opportunities to further their progress.

Why is giving back to LBC important to you?

Education has been a passion and being able to help support students from a broad range of backgrounds is key to science progressing efficiently.

What was your goal in establishing this fund?

To be able to support students focused on future careers in STEM fields.

Who is someone who inspires you?

Many of my teachers and professors. More recently I've been really inspired by Daniel Kahneman and his insights into how humans think.